
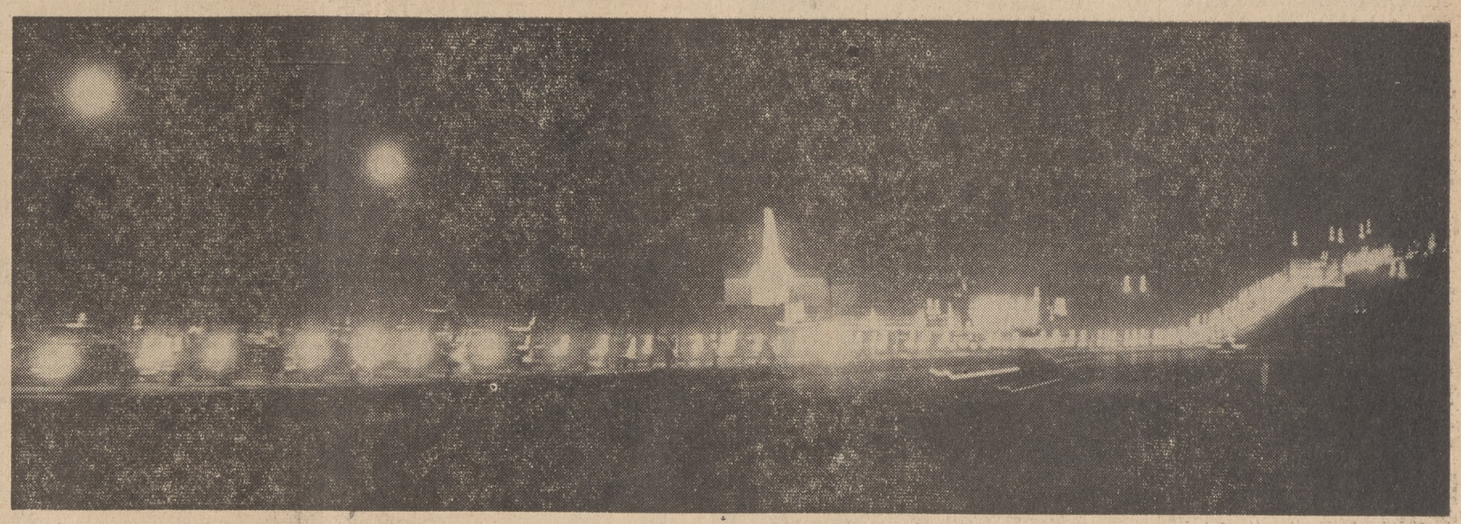
MORE ATTENTION to road signs could prevent accidents like this. The signs usually mean just what they say. In the cast of major highway construction like the Lafayette By-Pass, drivers must be wary of road conditions over a considerable distance. As a matter of fact, they would do well to be careful at all times, signs or not. —Sun Photo by L. John Larsen



THE LONG STRING of lights means that a lot of drivers will be late getting home to a warm dinner and a happy home in the country. Although Orinda has a new interchange boasting six full lanes for traffic, it doesn't do much good when some driver is careless, gets into an accident and blocks the highway "up ahead" somewhere. As a result of an accident last Friday night, this is what happened to eastbound traffic.—Sun photo by L. John Larsen

Sub-Council Formation Plan OK'd

Ballots Will Be Sent Out Next Week by Association

With its annual membership drive spreading to an all-time-record high, the Orinda Association this week scheduled the tentative time-table for election of five directors.

At the association board's regular meeting in Orinda School auditorium Monday night, directors agreed to the following tentative schedule, at suggestion of President Robert Boyle:

1. Closing of the membership drive this weekend.

2. BALLOT DISTRIBUTION, through the mail, next Monday and Tuesday.

3. Issuance of the Orinda News, official monthly publication of the association, next Monday; this issue to list the candidates and give other pertinent facts about the election.

4. Deadline for return and counting of ballots — December 19.

5. The full board — including the outgoing, holdover and newly elected directors — will meet December 28, when the new directors will be installed and the 1956 board members will elect officers.

WILLIAM THURSTON, nominating committee chairman, announced the following candidates as selected by him and Harold Caldwell and Jim Denning of his committee:

From northwest Orinda — Mrs. Ritchie Ward, John Van Dyne.

From northeast Orinda — Dr. Karl Deissler, Gene Estes.

From the Charles Hill area — George Cook, Bob Walpole.

Middle southern Orinda — Marvin Baker, Joe Zablocki.

Southern "tip" of Orinda — H. D. DuBois, George Stanton.

Except for Van Dyne, all nominees were present and were introduced by Thurston.

Mel Arighi and Frederic A. Sawyer were appointed by Boyle as co-chairmen of the balloting committee. Arighi and Sawyer were empowered to select their assistants.

MEMBERSHIP of the Orinda Association for 1956 was described by Membership Drive Chairman T. D. Sanford as rolling toward a record peak.

Stating that complete returns were expected by this weekend, he estimated that "probably in the neighborhood of 1500 family memberships (about 3000 individuals)" were already enrolled.

Civic Affairs Committee Chairman Paul Pollaczek reported that one of the queries encountered by canvassers in the membership drive concerned the conducting of at least two drives each year for many Orindans — one for the Orinda Association and one for the neighborhood associatin.

Accident Slows Autos One Hour On Mt. Diablo

Mt. Diablo Boulevard traffic was slowed for over an hour after a four-car accident at 5:20 p.m. Friday 600 feet west of Acalanes Road, Lafayette.

A citation is pending for Morris Arnold Bergesen, 18, 3949 North Peardale Drive, Lafayette, for speeding and following too closely, according to the Highway Patrol. Bergesen was taken to Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Walnut Creek, and later released.

He was traveling east when he struck an auto driven by Thomas Kinaide Pope 17, 21 Shady Lane Court, Walnut Creek. Pope sustained damage to the rear and front ends of his car.

Also involved were Irene Stainbrook, 33, 2004 Magnolia Way, Walnut Creek, whose car had front and rear damage, and Adolph Grose, 49 Soule Avenue, Concord.

An unidentified man with lighted flares guided traffic, one lane at a time, around the accident before arrival of the Highway Patrol.

For about one hour, it took 30 minutes to travel from Orinda to Lafayette.

Stygian Rally Draws 166 Sport Cars in Competition

Amid glaring floodlights and the crackling voice of Captain Fortune over the loudspeakers, 166 sport cars entered in the Stygian Rally left Acalanes High in succession one minutes apart beginning at 6:30 Saturday night.

Ahead of them lay a 371½-mile route over all types of roads. Drivers and navigators were issued maps charting their timed course just prior to takeoff. No existing speed limits were to be violated. Check points were scattered along the way.

THE RALLY, co-sponsored by the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and Sport Cars Unlimited, drew the largest turnout for a night rally in Northern California, according to John Luce, SUC activities chairman.

The first car to arrive at El Nido Sunday morning for the "victory breakfast," where awards were made, came in at 6:45. In the timed driving, the cars were theoretically supposed to arrive one minute apart. The last one came in about 10 a.m.

Winners of the Class I first place trophy were two Orindans, the husband and wife team of Olof and Jean Dahlstrand. Class I entrants used nothing in the way of an automatic or power-driven computer.

SECOND PLACE trophy went to Hugh James and Robert Cross of San Jose, and third place tropry to Dr. Jesse Adams and Dr. George Ricketson of Vallejo.

Class II trophies went to: Robert Bowen and Donald Gustafson of San Bruno, first; Bob Baird and Art Polson of Carmel, second; and James McCandless and Bernard Hogan of Piedmont.

The chamber of commerce donated 13 merchandise prizes and the six pairs of winners were given their choices from the display.

The Sportsmanship Award trophy went to James Graeser and Frederick Whitney of Piedmont. They encountered a car stalled on the route just west of Patterson. To protect following drivers, they lost about 10 minutes time putting out flares.

Only seven cars failed to finish, and there were no serious accidents and no injuries, Luce reported.

The El Nido was jammed with guests and contestants for the "victory breakfast" and a swarm of youngsters were attracted to Acalanes the night before to see Captain Fortune while their parents looked over the cars.

Fortune, a sport car enthusiast, gave authoritative descriptions of makes and models. Rally chairman was Frank Rhode of SCU. Mel Nielsen was chairman of the chamber rally committee.

THE ROUTE went over back roads to Patterson, the first check point, and then over Pacheco Pass through Hollister and down into Salinas. This was the halfway point, with a 1½-hour stop for a hot meal at the Santa Lucia Inn and refueling of gas tanks.

Cars then went through Watsonville into the Coastal Range, through Ben Lomond and out to the Coast Highway at Pescadero. They then went back through the mountains, into Palo Alto, over Dumbarton Bridge, through San Lorenzo and Moraga and back into Lafayette.

Driving time of 10 hours and 45 minutes was allowed for the course.

Who Best Deserves Title Of Orinda's Man of Year?

Here's a suestion that's really a puzzler for Orindans:

Who best deserves the honorary title, Orinda's Man—or Woman—of the Year?

To anyone who has been following the many community activities during the past year, it's apparent that there are many local people who have devoted considerable time and effort for the betterment of Orinda.

EACH YEAR The Sun sponsors a Man of the Year contest, in which a committee of local citizens selects the person it considers most worthy of the honorary title, on the basis of work for Orinda's welfare.

This year's committee will be named next week. The committees decision will be final, but the committee will welcome your suggestions.

Announcement of the Man of the Year will be made in the December 30 Orinda Sun.

SO—PUT ON your thinking cap, and send The Sun your suggestions for Orinda's Man of the year—name the person you think has done the most for Orinda during 1955, and give your reasons.

Your suggestions will be turned over to the committee. Let's have them!

Diablo Crusade Is Boosted by Residential Drive

Diablo Valley turned out to be the "sleeper" in the United Bay Area Crusade to raise funds for a large number of worthy causes, jumping from tenth to second place in the East Bay division, with incomplete returns now at $36,097.91.

This is the opinion of General Chairman Earl Cappel who added today that chances are good that the original area goal of $37,300 will be attained. Already the money turned in during the six week crusade is nearly 114 percent of that taken last year.

THE FIVE-COUNTY campaign returns are more than $9 millions, towards an overall goal of $10,691,640.

East Bay leaders will meet with general and community chairmen at 10 a.m. this morning at the drive headquarters, 337 13th Street, Oakland, to inspect the near complete returns. From this area will be Cappel, Community Chairmen Ken Jensen of Lafayette, George Eberhart of Orinda, Gordon Moynahan of Walnut Creek, Al Kaplan of Danville and Don Burke of Pleasant Hill, and coordinators and officials, Charles Gable, John Price, Clifford Grodin and George Conner.

DIABLO VALLEY, SAID Cappel, was lagging behind the other areas, in 10th place a month ago, until the residential campaign began. A large part of the area goal was assigned to the residential — $13,300. Far exceeding earlier forecasts, the residential effort has already brought in $12,252.48.

This is 92 per cent of the goal, and 101 per cent of the residential money collected last year.

Commerce and industry solicitors reached their 100 per cent mark last week with $9906.96 taken.

In other departments, the municipal employees have 108 per cent, advance gifts, 119 per cent, district business, 102 per cent, education, 98.2 per cent, and professional (attorneys, dentists), 29 per cent.

THE ONLY AREA leading Diablo Valley percentage wise in the East Bay is San Lorenzo, a smaller campaign.

Cappel said that any celebration should be reserved for the final figures, but that the drive workers are to be praised for their all-out efforts, which have been so successful.

Office District Action Scheduled For Next Tuesday

Board of Supervisors action on the proposed administrative office district ordinance is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Supervsorial hearing on the matter was closed November 15, when the proposed ordinance was referred back to the County Planning Commission for clarification regarding certain wordings in the text and on the intent in connection with retail sales in medical-dental office buildings in administrative office districts.

The commission had previously recommended favorable action on establishment of administrative office districts.

Tuesday night the Planning Commission, at Martinez, held a hearing on the problem of the clarification. The commission instructed Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker to prepare an amended ordinance.

THE CHANGES ordered would, according to Principal Planner H. Russell Grriffith permit a prescription pharmacy to be included in a medical-dental center in an administrative office district, but would not allow an ordinary drug store, with its sale of other merchandise, in such a location.

The changes will also effect certain minor wording in the text, Griffith said.

Griffith stated that the commission will probably act on the amended ordinance proposal tonight, so as to have it ready for supervisorial action Tuesday morning. The commission is holding a special meeting at 8 o'clock tonight for a hearing on a Clayton Valley quarry dispute; Griffith explained that it will also be able to transact any other necessary business.

AT LAST TUESDAY night's session, according to Griffith, there was little comment from the audience, although Attorney Bestor Robinson, on behalf of Pacific Intermountain Express Company, stated he had no objection to the proposed changes.

Countywide in its application, the administrative district ordinance (which would be an amendment to the county zoning ordinance) would have an immediate effect on Orinda, where PIE is planning to erect a $750,000 office property headquarters at its 10-acre Pine Grove property.

Adoption of the administrative office district ordinance would clear the way for action on PIE's rezoning application regarding its property. The rezoning would be along the administrative office district lines, so as to permit construction of the office headquarters.

ALTHOUGH not opposed to the administrative office district proposal as such, the Orinda Association, through its Homeowners Committee, is actively opposed to PIE's office headquarters plans and to any other future businesses in Orinda which would not serve the immediate needs of the local populace.

The Homeowners Committee is headed by William Penn Mott Jr. Its legal counsel is Gladys Schwatka.

County Planners Await Consultant Report for Utah

Still unresolved after many months is the problem of zoning for the vast 8300-acre Moraga Valley area, including over 4000 acres belonging to Utah Construction Company, according to Principal County Planner H. Russell Griffith.

However, Griffith pointed out yesterday that the County Planning Commission, which was deadlocked last spring over zoning plans for the area, is awaiting plans being developed for Utah Company by Harland Bartholomew and Associates of San Francisco.

The general plan for Moraga was adopted by the Planning Commission last April. But disagreement flared over specific zoning proposals, and the commission failed to reach the two-thirds votes required for zoning recommendations to the Board of Supervisors.

"Since then," Griffith said, "Utah Construction Company has hired Harland Bartholomew and Associates as a consulting firm. This firm is working on plans for Utah Company's holdings, and its activity includes study of possible school sites.

"The commission is waiting for results of Bartholmew and Associates' work for Utah Construction Company."

Discord Arises Over 'Approval' Of Shell's Plans

Plans for the new Shell Oil Company service station in Orinda have not "won the approval of the Planning Committee of the Orinda Association," Chairman James Hupp said yesterday.

He referred to a full-page advertisement in last week's Orinda Sun in which Shell had made the statement. Most of the Planning Committee had never seen the plans until they appeared in The Sun, according to Hupp.

HE SAID, "The plans were first shown to me on October 18 at a meeting hurriedly arranged at the request of representatives of the company who wanted to proceed with the building as rapidly as possible.

"Also present at this meeting were two directors of the Orinda Association's board and a member of the Planning Committee. Because of prior commitments and the short notice given, other members were unable to attend.

"I reminded the company's representatives that we were not in a position to give or to withhold approval and it was explicitly pointed out to them that the meeting was for information and discussion only. We were told that the company intended to publicize the plan in the next issue of The Sun and to ask for comments of the community on the design of the station."

Shell officials expressed surprise over Hupp's statements.

CAMPBELL Ross, Shell's district manager, said, "We are sorry there appears to be a misunderstanding of our meeting on October 18 with members of the Orinda Association.

"Our representatives and the architect left the meeting with the definite impression that the group was in accord with the architect's conception.

"As a result of this meeting we have proceeded with the detail planning of the architect's rendering as submitted."

School Trustees Consider Pine Grove Condemnation

A request that it condemn the Pacific Intermountain Express Company property at the Pine Grove for a school site was being considered last night by the Orinda School District board of trustees as The Sun went to press.

The board was meeting in special sessions at Orinda School, following a meeting November 22 of the Orinda Association board of directors at Orinda School, to which school board members were invited. All trustees were present except Ritchie C. Smith.

AT THAT time the association board of directors voted to urge the school board to acquire the PIE property through condemnation. The trustees then made no comment on whether they would act to condemn the property, but later called last night's meeting.

Urgin of condemnation action was the latest move by the Orinda Association board of directors to block construction of a $750,000 administrative office building at the Pine Grove by PIE.

Ted Palmer, director of public relations for the company, told The Sun prior to last night's meeting that his only comment on the proceedings was that PIE would sustain its request to the county that the property be rezoned from Residenial-Agricultural to allow for construction of an office building.

SUPERINTENDENT of Schools Joseph Sheaff would make no comment prior to the meeting.

At the Nvember 22 meeting of the Orinda Association board of directors, President Robert Boyle said:

"The Homeowners Committee of the Orinda Association has the responsibility of keeping Orinda residential. Its principal problem this year has been the PIE-Pine Grove matter, and it has made every effort to find a logical solution to the problem of keeping industrial movement out of Orinda.

"Several weeks ago it seemed that the solution had been found through the school board's interest in this parcel. This was coupled with the school board's' apparent need for the property, and its ability to buy."

At Monday's regular meeting of the association board of directors, Boyle and Vice-President Frederic A. Sawyer said that action by the Board of Supervisors on the administrative office district ordinance proposal is scheduled for December 6.

THEY POINTED out that passage of the ordinance would clear the way for later action on PIE's rezoning request and that this would probably up the price tag on the PIE property, and hence the need for haste on any condemnation action by the school board.

The November 22 recommendation by the association board of directors to the school board read as follows:

"The school board should take immediate action to condemn the PIE property to protect it from higher costs that could be assumed after rezoning. If in due time property is found not to be satisfactory to their use the condemnation proceedings should be stopped and they should assume expenses incurred."

November Exits On Varied Note

"Remember November" may have been the weatherbird's goal, so far as Orindans are concerned. At any rate, November left the local scene after an assortment of three below-freezing nights, two highs of 67 and .36 of an inch of rain.

The rainfall — .34 of an inch November 23 and .02 of an inch Thanksgiving Day — brought the total local precipitation for the current weather year (since July 1) to 2.81 inches.

Civil Defense Steps Speeded By Association

Formation of an Orinda civil defense sub-council was a step nearer this week as result of action by the Orinda Association board Monday night.

Meeting at Orinda School, the association directors heard a report by Mrs. Stuart Henderson, and President Robert Boyle requested her and Joseph Nicolet to direct a steering committee which will take steps toward establishment of a local sub-council.

Mrs. Henderson stated that she and Nicolet will attend county meetings relevant to sub-council activity. She added that she expects a steering committee of 12 to function.

"THE PURPOSE of forming a sub-council, which is the aim of the committee, is to inform Orindans of the sanest and safest procedures in an emergency, whether it be atomic attack, earthquake, fire or handling evacuees, and to maintain a network of people in readiness in case of any such disaster," Mrs. Henderson said.

"All those who in 1951 were block wardens should consider themselves as such at the present time unless they notify Mr. Nicolet, CL 4-2320, or me, CL 4-3592.

"All new residents since that time who are interested and any residents with first aid or Red Cross training, who would be ready to help in a disaster, are asked to contact Mr. Nicolet or me."

THE BOARD accepted the resignation of Clinton Hallsted as a director and appointed Paul Pollaczek to take his place for the unexpired portion of Hallsted's term — until the end of 1956.

In his letter of resignation, read by Boyle, Hallsted explained that his resignation was based on "new business interests" which consumed much of his time.

He suggested that "number one oriority" be given revision of the by-laws by the board.

IN REPLY to a recent board request regarding advisability of the association's retaining an attorney on a yearly basis, a letter from Gladys Schwatka, legal counsel for the association's Homeowners Committee, was read by Boyle.

She recommended that such retaining of legal counsel be done.

The matter was referred to the 1956 board.

Directors voted for $25 organizational dues for 1956 to be paid to the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association, for renewal of Orinda Association membership in the taxpayer group.

Shelter Will Go Up After State Finishes Turnoff

Gaining increasing support from Orinda groups, the proposed bus shelter at the Interchange will be under construction as soon as the bus turnoff is finished, according to Ramsay Underwood, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce bus shelter committee.

He said an encroachment permit was granted last week by the San Francisco office of B. W. Booker, assistant state highway engineer. The state's contractor on the turnoff, Watkin and Sibbald of San Anselmo, was scheduled to finish the job December 19. Inclement days have extended the time slightly.

Raffi Bedayn will build the shelter, having submitted a cost only bid of $879, exclusive of fencing.

Acalanes Board Told of Studies On Curriculum

Acalanes High School District trustees discussed curriculum modifications with Miss Lily Lahti, district coordinator of curriculum, at their meeting Monday night at Acalanes High School. Miss Lahti reported that faculty study committees are working, on a district basis, on curriculum additions and revisions.

Trustees also met with representatives of Los Amigos, Las Lomas High School parents' club, regarding that group's project to get the lighting fixtures of the Oaks' Emeryville ball park for the Las Lomas football field. Board members told Ben McFeely, head of the parent project, of their interest in the activity and asked for further reports as details for the project are worked out.

The trustees approved two bids — the first for construction of district administrative quarters on the Acalanes campus by Lathrop Construction Company of Berkeley for $57,700, the second for work at Las Lomas High on a physical education field for girls at a low bid of $11,971 by Winton Jones Company of Concord.

The money for both projects is part of the last of funds approved in a 1952 bond issue election.

Board members also took action to apply for federal aid to the district for pupils whose parents are federal employees.

The board adjourned to reconvene Tuesday afternoon for official canvass of the votes of the November 22 bond election.

Polio Vaccination Clinics Operating In C.C. County

Polio vaccine clinics will be held by the County Health Department, in accordance with requests for appointment. Two clinics now planned will be in Richmond, this morning, and in Pleasant Hill, December 13.

As more requests come in, additional clinics will be arranged according to Dr. H. O. Blunt. Appointments will be required for all polio vaccination clinics. Children through the age of 14 years and pregnant women are eligible.

Polio vaccine is available from private physicians, and it is recommended that those who can secure this service as part of their medical care by their private physician do so.

Parents who wish their children to receive polio vaccine at the Health Department may obtain an appointment by writing, giving the name and address of the parent, the name and age of the child, and the date of any previous polio vacinaction. An appointment will then be sent for the clinic nearest their home. Children will have to be accompanied by their parents or guardians.

GOP Women Push Flag Sale Drive

Members of the California Federation of Republican Women are pursuing their 1955 Star Spangled Banner project, with its goal of an American flag in every California home.

In charge of the state flag project is Mrs. Marvin Kennedy of 59 Lost Valley Drive, Orinda.

She announces that the federation flag is 3 by 5 feet, color-fast, vat-dyed, with a two-piece pole 6 feet long, with stripes double-stitched for security. There's a separate bracket for the outside of the house, she points out, as well as a sturdy storage box for packing convenience.

"Star Spangled Banner is just about the best Christmas gift one can give a son or daughter, a relative or neighbor," she states.

This is your community. Help make it a better place to live in.

County Goal for Christmas Seal Drive Totals $90,000

Tuberculosis prevention and other vital programs will require $90,000 from Contra Costa County in the 1955 Christmas Seal Sale drive which opened two weeks ago, according to Neill Cornwall, of Lafayette. He is president-elect of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association.

This year's goal was established by the Executive Committee after considering the needs for next year as outlined by the committee chairmen. They are Mrs. Ludwig Mosheim of Antioch, Rehabilitation Committee; Mrs. B. O. Wilson of Walnut Creek, Social Welfare Committee; George Wacker of Richmond, Case Finding Committee.

MRS. HAROLD DeFRAGA of Martinez, Christmas Seal Sale Committee; C. J. Hart, M.D., of Walnut Creek, Budget and Finance Committee; Kenneth McPhee of Richmond, Personnel Practices Committee; and Harold DeFraga, Legislative Information Committee.

"Among the big projects under consideration to discover unknown cases of TB are the continuation of the routine admission X-ray program at the County Hospital, expansion of routine X-raying of all patients in certain other hospitals in Contra Costa County, and concentration of case finding activities among groups known to have a high incidence of TB," announced Cornwall.

"Other plans for next year will focus around the needs of TB patients in their fight to return to normal living. Help is needed to provide work simplification instruction for the patients, occupational therapy during hospitalization, training for a new occupation if necessary, brush-up courses, and assistance in job placement," he continued.

"FINALLY, MEDICAL research efforts into the cause, course, prevention, and treatment of TB will be expanded next year. Specific projects in some of these areas will receive grants from the Association."

Cornwall emphasized that 94 per cent of all funds raised locally will remain in the County and State to help meet the needs of our rapidly growing population.

He urged all Contra Costans to be generous this year when they buy Christmas Seals — and to use as many as they can on all holiday cards and packages. The Christmas Seal Sale campaign will continue through December

Kings Buys Black's Grocery Depts.

Effective this coming Sunday, the grocery and produce departments of Black's Market at 63 Moraga Highway, Orinda, will be under the ownership of Kings Food Center.

This was announced this week by Don Tice and Norm Ironside, co-owners of Kings Food Center of Lafayette and Pleasant Hill, who have purchased the departments at Black's from Jack and Chet Clark.

"EVEN BETTER values in service" than have been the case until now at Black's Market will be offered by the new owners because of a cash-and-carry service which will be the new policy at Blacks grocery and produce departments, Tice pointed out.

He explained that the reason for the cash-and-carry service is "the increased overhead and competitiveness that exist in the grocery business today," and that by eliminating bookkeeping as much as possible, it will be possible to offer substantial bargains in foods.

However, T & D Liquors and Delicatessen and T & V Meats "will continue to offer the same convenient charge account services" at Black's Market to their customers as in the past, Tice added.

TICE AND Ironside have been in business in this area for less than two years.

In March, 1954, they opened their Lafayette market at the location of the old Lafayette Food Center.

In the early days, people opposed to automobiles scattered tacks and glass on the roads to discourage motorists, recalls the California State Automobile Association.

Safeway Features 'Computing Register'

Checkout of customers' orders are speeded at the new Safeway supermarket at 3540 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, through use of cash registers which automatically compute change and refunds. The registers eliminate figuring by clerks and reduce the chance for error, according to Quentin Reynolds, Safeway's Bay Area zone manager.

"Cashiers like the new registers, saying they no longer worry about making mistakes; customers like them because they don't have to wait in line so long and because they see all adding and subtracting done in plain sight and get a printed receipt with an exact description of each transaction," Reynolds said.

THE NEW REGISTERS have a lever for subtracting as well as adding and a rainbow-hued bank of special keys to report each transaction in triplicate.

Rotarians Hear Baldwin Speak

Congressman John Baldwin discussed some of his experiences and activities while serving the district in Washington, D. C., before Wednesday's meeting of the Orinda Rotary Club at the Willows.

At last week's meeting, two films were shown regarding the care of teeth with special emphasis on care beginning in childhood.

Village Shoe Shop Installs New Soler

Recent installation of an automatic heeling machine called the "Comet-10 Model Auto-Soler" and the much heralded "core heels" now enable Village Shoe Shop, 85 Orinda Highway, to perform a new service for customers. Customers who visit this shop can now get their shoes re-heeled in three minutes and be on their way.

Fire District Switches Dates

The commissioners of the Orinda County Fire Protection District have decided to hold their next regular meeting December 15 at 7:30 p.m. at Station No. 1, according to Clarence Betz, secretary.

It was felt that the regular meeting date of December 22 is too close to Christmas.

Drive carefully—save a life.

Lafayette Safeway Store Now Open for Business

The newest store in the Safeway chain opened its doors Wednesday at 3540 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

"We are proud of this new facility, as it possesses every attractive feature required in a modern food store. The residents of Lafayette and the surrounding area, we believe, will find that the store will be an attractive addition to the community. We are happy to add this new unit to our Bay Area operations," Quentin Reynolds, Safeway's Bay Zone manager said.

The building is 110 by 175 feet in dimension. It occupies 19,250 square feet of ground area, with the basement compressor room and mezzanine bringing the total area under one roof to 20,876.

THE GREATEST PORTION of this huge area is devoted to the sales room, with the work room area located behind the scenes in large, well-lighted, air-conditioned rooms.

The new store is one of over 2000 Safeway stores in the United States and Canada. Reynolds pointed out that it is modern in every detail, including such features as "Magic Carpet" doors which open and shut automatically.

Other features are the mechanically operated checkstands of spesial design and the more than 270 lineal feet of open top cooler and freezer space provided for attractive display of produce, ice cream, frozen foods and prepackaged meats.

AN INNOVATION is the new cash registers with which the store is equipped.

These registers compute the change and refunds automatically, eliminating figuring by the checkers and reducing the chance for error.

The Safeway Company considers the new registers one of the most significant advances in service to customers since adoption of mechancal checkstands, Reynolds stated.

AMPLE OFF-STREET parking space for 196 automobiles is provided in the 82,000-square-foot parking lot. Curbs and painted lines are designed to assist the flow of traffic and to designate parking positions.

It is planned for convenient access and will be lighted with over 20,000 watts of light from highly directional fixtures, so that no point of the parking area will be in darkness.

Interior walls and ceiling of the sales room are finished in soft pastel shades, with indirect wall lighting and fluorescent strip lighting in the ceiling.

REYNOLDS STATED that the Lafayette store has a staff of 45 employees under the direction of Marvin Turner, formerly manager of a Safeway store in Berkeley.

"Many of the employees in the new store are also transfers from other stores," he said, "the remainder being new employees who are all residents of the Lafayette area."

Turner is a veteran of 20 years with the Safeway Company. He is assisted by Howard Long, assistant manager; George Lambton, head meat cutter, and B. R. Tickner, head produce clerk.

Operating hours of the new store are from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week.

Quarter-century means turkey respite

ANNIVERSARY WALTZ . . . Twenty-five wedded years for Captain and Mrs. William S. TYRELL inspired the very wonderful party, a progressive-dinner affair, held last Saturday night in the Crane Court Sector of Sleepy Hollow when friends and close neighbors assembled for the Silver Anniversary celebration in honor of the couple . . . Commencing w/cocktail-toasts at the home of Frank Gillespies (Frank doing MC duties for the evening) . . . On to the Mark NOBLES for Ham, Yam and trimmings and a respite from turkey.

While seated around the table at the Noble home, Capt. Bill and his First ("last and always") Mate Ethel were presented very ceremoniously w/a beautiful paper ship sailing upon an aluminum sea, shiny silver dollars forming the 27 portholes, all cleverly and artistically done by Helen Bibbs . . . the presentation followed by a sea-chantey toast rendered by Charlie BIBBS in his best seafarin' voice!

A marvelous and memorable eve finished off with Charades following coffee and dessert at the Channing KILBURNS . . . attended by Yates and Cornelia BLEUEL, Paul and Virginia STAFFORD, the Hans MULDNERS, Wallace and Billie GREENLAW, the Joseph NICOLETS, Bob and Pat WALKER, the Albert McCANNS, Jim and Fran SEAMAN, Bill and Betty TALBOT and Mark NOBLE Jr.

MONDAY GLEANINGS . . . Up from El Segundo for a visit to their old locale, George and Mary MATY, w/Ginny and Bobby, the family, former Orindans who moved South some 3 yrs. ago. They houseguested w/the Bill COURTRIGHTS for five days and since Jane and Bill had made plans for a Sat. nite party to get an early start on the crowded holiday calendar, nothing could have been more apropos since George and Mary have many old mutual friends here.

Thirty guests plus gathered for buffet supper, and greeting and meeting the former Orinda Park Terrace residents were the Dale McBANES, John PARKERS, Karl RIGERS, Jim HILLS, Mel COLWELLS, Robert PRIDEMORES, Fred BUSSEYS, Gene HOPPERS, Joe ZABLOCKIS, Art SCHWATKAS, the William Webbsf of Oakland and Dr. and Mrs. Ronald LIGHT, w/Mrs. Light's father, Bruce Dahlgren up from L.A. for the holiday.

Two Kansans finally turn up here

An aunt and a cousin Laurie KERSTEN hadn't seen since she was 12 years old back in Dresden, Kansas, turned up on a tour of California and the Kerstens, Chuck and Laurie, delighted to renew the relationship, called in 25 family members for a buffet supper at their Canon Dr. home . . . Laurie's aunt, Mrs. Arthur LEIST and cousin Caroline Launchbaugh, as well as Mr. George Launchbaugh, George Junior, aged 4, and Mrs. Ella Launchbaugh were guests of honor at the family gathering.

HOLIDAY VISITORS . . . here for Thanksgiving and Xmas, Mrs. Palmer YORK from Jackson Hghts, N.Y. visiting w/the Junior Palmer YORKS and their daughters Sandra, Pamela and Barbara . . . Home from the Univ. of Oregon for the holidays came John SPIEGL, son of Roberta and Ernest Spiegl of La Espiral . . . Flying in last week from Rochester, N.Y. Junior Chamber Sells 220 Boxes Of Safety Flares

Results of last Saturday's Safety Flare Sale were announced at the Monday meeting of the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce held at the El Nido Rancho in Lafayette.

The flare committee, headed by Howard Koch, sold 220 boxes of flares at Clark's Market in Rheem Center and at Lafiesta Foods parking area in Lafayette.

Proceeds of this sale in excess of $100 were announced to two prominent guests at the meeting, Theron Nelson, newly elected president of the Lafayette Community Center, and Robert Thompson, past president. The proceeds will be delivered to the Community Center.

Thompson and Nelson spoke to the members about the progress of the Center, from its origination to its current position, and were optimistic about future results.

Other highlights of the meeting were announcements regarding the forthcoming Christmas Carol Festival and a potluck supper to be held tomorrow night at the home of Hans Beetz, 3300 North Lucille Lane, Lafayette. Some 20 members and their wives are expected to attend.

The executive board of the Orinda Mothers Club will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Edward A. Patterson, 9 Douglas Court.

New Post Office In Moraga Open After Dedication

Moraga Valley residents from the youngest to the oldest took part in the historic community's first office dedication yesterday scheduled at Moraga Highway and School Street.

Principal speaker was to be Congressman John Baldwin of the Sixth Congressional District. In case of inclement weather, the ceremony was to be transferred to the Moraga School auditorium.

MORAGA'S new post office is a ranch-style building designed with redwood board and batten walls, accented with columns of used brick. Other agricultural features included a cupola on the shake roof, a weathervane recalling days of the vaquero in Moraga Valley and a plaque relating the community's post office history. A landscaped off-street parking area adjoins the building.

Listed on yesterday's program was a half-hour concert by the 12th Naval District Band from Treasure Island, followed at 2 p.m. by invocation by Brother Thomas, F.S.C., president of St. Mary's College.

Moraga School students were to lead the Pledge of Allegiance prior to a speech by F. Robert Fahs, assistant to the regional operations manager, representing the U. S. Post Office Department and the Postmaster General.

After Baldwin's talk, Captain Harold Parker (USN, ret.), president of the Moraga Valley Community Club, was to introduce federal, state and county officials.

POSTMASTER Elinor W. Dickenson was then to be presented with the keys by Frank M. Keller, vice president of Utah Construction Company.

This was to be followed by a flag-raising ceremony by Moraga Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts, the "Star Spangled Banner" by the Navy Band, and announcement by Mrs. Dickenson that the post office was open for business as of 2:30 p.m.

This is the first post office in Moraga to be devoted exclusively to mail, and its establishment has no direct bearing on which of three post offices, Lafayette, Orinda or Moraga, will deliver mail door to door in Moraga. This decision is now pending in the San Francisco Division office.

New Fire House Work Will Start 'Around Feb. 1'

Construction of Orinda Fire Station No. 3 at Honey Hill Road and Via Las Cruces is expected to start "around February 1," Fire Board Vice-President Zach Montgomery stated Monday night.

Montgomery made his announcement at the regular meeting of the Orinda Association board, of which he is a member. The association board met in the Orinda School auditorium.

"We hope the new station will be completed by next July," Montgomery said.

"The third fire house will give Orinda complete coverage needs for the present," he continued. "and we hope that the Board of Fire Underwriters will give us a reduction in fire insurance rates."

Montgomery explained that funds for the new fire house will come from a $125,000 bond issue voted five years ago. "We spent $75,000 for building the station at Glorietta," he added.

That station is Fire Station No. 2, at Moraga Highway and Orchar Road.

Fire Station No. 1 is on Avenida De Orinda, in Orinda Village.

Association Needs You—You Need It!

Perhaps nothing in recent months is so indicative of the civic consciousness of the people of Orinda as the current membership drive of the Orinda Association, now nearing its highly successful conclusion.

Even with the present incomplete returns, it is apparent that something of a records has been established — the approximately 1500 family memberships estimated to have been obtained by early this week are far in excess of the 600 families listed as 1955 members, and are also more than the membership of the association at any time during at least the past several years.

And it doesn't seem that Drive Chairman T. D. Sanford is too optimistic when he says he anticipates a total 1956 membership of approximately 2000 families (or about 4000 individuals), which would definitely be an all-time record for the Orinda Association.

Sanford and his hard-working volunteer corps of 24 zone captains and more than 150 canvassers deserve the heartiest congratulations. Their activity included much more than merely asking people to join the Orinda Association. They also did a lot of explaining about Orinda's problems and about the need for a strong Orinda Association.

But all their explanations would have been of little avail if the people of Orinda were not receptive and did not have a keen interest and sense of responsibility in their community.

If by chance you have not yet been contacted by one of the membership drive workers, you owe it to yourself, your family and your community to join the Orinda Association. Send your $2 family dues (or $1 per individual) to the Orinda Association, Box 97, Orinda, so that you will be a member in good standing for the year 1956.

One of the important privileges and duties of membership is voting in the annual election of association directors. Ballots in that election are scheduled to be mailed to members next week.

After urging you to join the Orinda Association (or to renew your membership in it), it seems also like "gilding the lily" to urge you to be sure to vote in the election. Yet so important is it for the community and the organization to have representative leadership, that we risk being guilty of that tritely phrased action by reminding you of the forthcoming election of five directors.

The Orinda Association is truly community-wide. Its board is elected by the entire membership, although each director is from a certain area (except the immediate past president, who serves as director-at-large). The Civic Affairs Committee, an advisory body, consists of delegates from the many organizations throughout Orinda, including the neighborhood improvement associations and the other organized groups.

The Orinda Association is as strong — or as weak — as the people of Orinda make it. Membership in it, obviously, is the first prerequisite for effective participation in its efforts.

What They Say

Is Now the Time To Do Shopping?

Each year about this time, the public is deluged with advertising pleas to get its Christmas shopping done early.

From outward appearance the exhortations seem to have about the same result as the ones that are posted prior to the annual income tax deadline.

TO PUT IT on a scientific basis, we might say the closer the final day (be it Christmas or the income tax deadline) the greater the density (be it human forms in stores or tax forms in the mails).

This all leads up to the question our researchers asked of a group of people this week:

"Have you started to 'do your Christmas shopping early'?"

"No I haven't," replied Mrs. J. L. Novascone, 90 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda. "My new baby girl has kept me from getting out. I'm usually a late shopper anyway, and could even be found shopping Christmas Eve."

MRS. GORDON Jones, 3221 Stanley Boulevard, Lafayette, said, "No, I am a last-minute shopper every year. I always hate myself for it, but just don't get in the Christmas mood until the day is almost upon me."

"Yes, I have,' said Mrs. Thomas Brown, 998 Thompson Road, Lafayette. "I expect to have my shopping completed this week. I am not usually a late shopper."

Mrs. W. F. Sergeant, Bear Creek Road, Orinda, said, "I've done some of it, but haven't started seriously. However, you won't find me in the stores December 24th."

"Christmas shopping is no problem for me,' was the assurance of Harry Vandenbroek of 156 Oak Vue Avenue, Pleasant Hill.

He went on to explain that his wife, Johanna, has charge of that department, and a big order it is, with nine grandchildren, at the top of the list!

IT'S NO WORRY TO Mrs. Glenn Nelson of 32 Gregory Lane, Pleasant Hill, either. That's because she started shopping during the summer — " . . . because I just love buying things for people, and of course there's the Christmas rush . . . "

Now everything is hidden away, and the only job is to keep sons Douglas, 2½, and David, 14 months, from the packages.

Most of her Christmas "shopping" will be done right in the home, says Mrs. Maurice Jones of 220 Shady Lane, Walnut Creek.

She will make toys and clothing for three daughters, and also two grandsons, Stephan and Michael Martinez of Santa Maria Way, Lafayette. Last year she went shopping in the usual way — and early — but found that she was so carried away with the spirit of Christmas in December that she went out and bought presents all over again! She plans to avoid that this year!

A HOLIDAY IN Mexico, including Mexico City, Pueblo, Acapulco, and other places provided Mr. and Mrs. Michael Banige of 1014 Esther Drive, Walnut Creek, with their Christmas presents.

They returned a couple of months ago with various items of silver and jewelry, which will appear under various Yuletide trees soon. Banige is assistant plant manager for a Berkeley air parts concern.

Acalanes Board Hears Professor Discuss Facilities

Long range planning for school facilities, buildings and utilities, in Contra Costa County was reviewed by Dr. William R. Odell, Stanford University professor of education, at the annual meeting of school board members Wednesday night, at Acalanes High School.

One hundred fifty trustees of elementary, high school and unified districts and the Contra Costa Junior College were invited.

Program arrangements were under the direction of the county superintendent, assisted by George Gordon, Junior College trustee and president of the Contra Costa County School Boards Association, and Mrs. Phyllis Wainwright, Martinez Elementary and Alhambra Union High School trustee and the association's program chairman.

The State Department of Education was represented by Dr. Ronald Cox, assistant division chief of school administration.

Christian Science

The completeness and integrity of God's creation including spiritual man will be brought out at services this Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator" will include the following verse from the King James Version of the Bible (Matt. 7:18): "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit."

Among the correlative passages to be read from " Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (539:19-22): "It is false to say that Truth and error comingle in creation. In parable and argument, this falsity is exposed by our Master as self-evidently wrong."

The Golden Text is from Isaiah (45:18): "Thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; I am the Lord; and there is none else."

Baldwin to Hold Office Hours

Congressman John Baldwin of Martinez announced today that he will hold office hours Thursday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. in the Council Chambers at the Walnut Creek City Hall for the convenience of those constituents in Central Contra Costaa County who might desire to see him to discuss Federal problems.

Baldwin said that it would not be necessary for advance appointments to be made for this purpose but that he would endeavor to talk with anyone who calls at the City Hall upon that day.

The Congressman further stated that he will be available in his Richmond office at 447 Tenth Street (BEacon 3-6343) to confer with constituents from now until December 22, after which he will be leaving for Washington for the second sesison of the 84th Congress.

He stated that appointments could be made to see him at his Richmond office by telephoning BEacon 3-6343.

Catholic Councilwoman Will Speak Monday

Mrs. Joseph Sechser, president of the Archdiocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women, will be guest speaker when the Contra Costa branch of NCCW holds its monthly meeting at Christ the King Auditorium, Pleasant Hill, on Monday at 8 p.m.

Present will be Reverend James Bohan, moderator for the County Council. County Council president, Mrs. Earl Travis of Richmond, will preside.

Graciously heading the hostess committee will be Mrs. Gilbert Lazzareschi, president of Christ the King Women's Club. An invitation by Mrs. Lazzareschi is extended to all Catholic women's organizations in the county.

Group Plans Yule Joy for Children At Juvenile Hall

"Christmas for children away from home and parents" is the theme of the emergency facing the newly formed Contra Costa Juvenile Hall Auxiliary.

Because of its extreme youth, the Auxiliary has no backlog of funds on which to call, spokesmen point out. Its particular, self-assumed problem at this time is providing Christmas presents for the children at the Hall, plus presents for the wards of the court, widely scattered in private homes throughout the county.

The Auxiliary has letters containing requests for specific "hearts' desires" which are so important to children at Christmas time, and particularly if they are forced to be away from home and parents. These requests are being made known to groups and individuals in the community with the hope that their response will make Christmas a possibility for these children who otherwise will have none.

For the Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Orinda area the list for which as yet there is no provision includes the following: one toy sewing machine, one cowboy outfit, two guns and holsters, two tiny tears dolls, one doll buggy, four bicycles (two boys and two girls), two tricycles, one wagon, one pair roller skates, two trucks, one chemistry set, two girls' wrist watches (10 to 12-year-old girls), one electric train for a family of five wards.

Any individual or group willing to assume responsibility for any of these items, or who would like more specific information about them, should contact Mary Edwards or Barbara Nicolson at MUlberry 2-2457.

Gifts of money should be made out to the Contra Costa Juvenile Hall Auxiliary and sent to the treasurer of the Auxiliary, Berl Bales, 160 Grove Drive, Concord, or to the Martinez Juvenile Hall, 211 Arnold Industrial Highway, Martinez. These should be marked for the Auxiliary and should include the name and address of the giver.

Adoption Group Told of Japan's Unloved Children

Mr. John W. Hughes of Nara Foundation gave an informal talk November 3, before members of the Diablo Adoption Auxiliary, on the needs of Japanese-American children in Japan.

According to Mr. Hughes, only 900 out of 260,000 have been claimed by their natural fathers or adopted. Almost all the others are living in homes of their maternal relatives. Because of the stigma against their mixed parentage, they are not permitted on the street daytimes, and are not assimilated into the Japanese society.

While several international and American organizations are attempting to help in a variety of ways, there are not nearly the resources available in Japan that we find in the United States, and a great many needs go unmet.

Applications to adopt children from other countries are handled locally by the San Francisco office of the State Department of Social Welfare, which works cooperatively with International Social Service and other agencies. Mr. Hughes suggested that homes and institutions should be established to provide for the many children who are not truly accepted in their present surroundings.

Dear Editor:

I read with great interest Mr. Osborn's article in last week's Sun on the state text book problem.

I hope further work will be done along the lines stated, as the public is so very poorly informed about how text books are chosen and why.

My children have mentioned at various times that their teachers are dissatisfied with one text or another that they must teach from.

Please keep us informed on developmens as they occur.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

Ah, for the life of a commuter!

At best, the life of a commuter is not easy. But when accidents, like the one noted on the front page, tie up traffic in triple knots — then, Mr. Commuter really has a rough time.

There are many problems in commuting — ever-increasing traffic, trucks, bus schedules and rates, bus shelters, traffic control and policing, highway construction, organization of ride groups, etc. There is no solution to some problems but definite action can be taken on others. That is why for years The Sun has actively cooperated with improvement associations, chambers of commerce, the Commuters Association and the Diablo Highway Federation in attempting to solve some problems.

No. 1 job has been to get state recognition and appropriations for freeways. In recent years, Central Contra Costa County has had success. Nevertheless, let us not relax our efforts. Many millions more are needed for the Shepherd Canyon Freeway, the south leg of the Walnut Creek by-pass, the Orinda-to-Lafayette freeway link, Orinda inter-change to the Tunnel, additional bores through the Tunnel and a freeway into Oakland with a link to the Bay Bridge.

Any idea how much these will cost? I can't even imagine. But let's keep working on them.

What about today and tomorrow?

Meanwhile, what can be done to relieve the present problems? The Commuters Association and The Sun have promoted bus commuting and ride groups to take a little of the load off the highway. Better policing is needed, particularly in moving traffic around accidents. More considerate and careful driving is certainly in order. This problem is acute at the Orinda inter-change.

Trucks! During commute hours, trucks can really raise heck. Much good work has been accomplished by organizations working with the trucking industry. But the problem constantly needs attention. The Sun has interviewed officials of Seaboard Transportation Company on several occasions and they have been most cooperative. Nevertheless, one of our "reliable sources," (Bob Kahn) last week reported traffic jams caused by two Seaboard trucks and others on a recent Wednesday. More work is required on the trucking situation.

Inching along together

If you do not commute, I don't think you can realize how tough it is to inch along Mt. Diablo Boulevard mile after mile. I asked Commuter John McKirahan to send me an occasional report and this one clearly paints the picture:

"A traffic stoppage occurred on a recent Monday — when it took 10 minutes to go from the top of Broadway, Oakland, to Lake Temescal; 7 minutes to Tunnel portal; and then speeded up — Tunnel to Orinda, 8 minutes; and Orinda to Lafayette, 7 minutes."

(John turns off at Lafayette but the Lafayette to Walnut Creek stretch, as well as north to Pleasant Hill and south to Alamo, are all slow, slow going.)

A mighty rough Friday

A recent Friday morning, John reports, was worse than Monday "which is usually the stinker for the week." Here's the data:

Lafayette to Charles Hill, 7 minutes ..... good
Charles Hill to Orinda, 13 minutes ..... terrible
Orinda to Tunnel (2 miles), 8 minutes ..... bad
Tunnel to Toll Plaza, 14 minutes ..... good
Toll Plaza to 2nd Street, S.F. (4.5 miles, 13 minutes .... bad

"That five lanes of traffic at Orinda trying to squeeze into two lanes of highway west of Orinda is a serious problem. One solution might be to take the third highway lane out of use, so there would be only four lanes of traffic to squeeze into two," John concluded.

Well, this is all part of the commuting story. If you have any suggestions or comments, please send them to The Sun.

HS Trustees Thank Voters For Approval of Bond Issue

Noting the passage of the Acalanes High School District $3,250,000 bond issue at the polls last week by 3460 to 327, a more than 10 to 1 majority, high school district trustees yesterday expressed their thanks to those who voted for the bond proposal, observing that "the overwhelming majority registered in favor of the bond issue indicates a commendable concern and awareness by the community regarding local secondary education problems."

Board members pledged themselves to "continue to secure the best educational program and facilities possible at the most economical cost."

Members of the Parents Committee for the Bond Proposal, which sparked the successful pre-ballot campaign, cited the heavy vote in favor of the board's projected program aimed at meeting the growing high school enrollment crisis as "a vote of confidence in the past, present and announced future policies of the school board and its administration."

School trustees had earlier announced that bond funds would be used over the next five years to complete Las Lomas High, Walnut Creek; complete Miramonte, Orinda; make needed additions to Acalanes High, Lafayette, and start construction on the first unit of a fourth high school, to relieve enrollment pressure on the three existing schools.

According to pre-election estimates by school officials, passage of the bond proposal, as an example, amounts to less than a $4.50 per annum tax increase for a property owner who owns a home with a current market value of $20,000.

School officials and Parents for the Bond Proposal had earlier warned that failure of the bonds to meet the required two-thirds public approval could mean high school double sessions, since 3000 additional high school pupils will enter the Acalanes District, primarily from enrollments now in local elementary schools, within the next five years.

At the time of the election November 22, 12 absentee ballots were outstanding.

Mortenson Hosts Rug Group Meet

Bob Mortenson, owner of Mortenson's Rug Cleaning and Crapet Sales Company, 3393 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette. was host to a recent meeting of the Rug Cleaners Institute of Northern California at his Oakland plant, Mortenson's Rug Cleaning Company.

The program for some 125 plant owners and operators included demonstrations and illustrations of improved methods of rug cleaning.

Delightful 'Sabrina Fair' Goes on Boards Tonight

The Lafayette Playshop, one of the Bay Area's oldest active little theater groups, will stage Sabrina Fair as its final production of the year today and tomorrow and December 9 and 10 at the Acalanes High School little theater. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

In business for over a dozen years, the Playshop has expanded its operations this year under President Les Ackerman so that its membership now includes actors from San Leandro, Oakland and Berkeley in addition to Lafayette, Walnut Creek area.

SABRINA FAIR, the current production, was a brilliant Broadway success two years ago with Margaret Sullivan, Joseph Cotten and Scott McKay and was popularized in the screen version starring Audrey Hepburn, Humphrey Bogart and William Holden.

Written by Samuel Taylor, the play is a form of modern fairy tale with Sabrina Fairchild, the chauffeur's daughter, as a worldly Cinderella. After five years in Paris, Sabrina returns to her father and his "home over the garage" on the estate of the wealthy Larabee family for whom he works.

Too sophisticated to accept her role of servant's daughter, the girl finds herself romantically involved with first one and then the other of the Larrabee sons in delightfully complex romances. The entire lively situation is climaxed by the prescribed fairy tale surprise ending.

UNDER THE DIRECTION of Bob Hudson, a drama instructor at Oakland High School and a Pleasant Hill resident, Oakland's Peggy Lang plays Sabrina with Ed Fosdahl of San Leandro as Linus, the older of the Larrabee sons and Ron Fimrite as the younger.

Thais Ackerman and Loyd Holton are the wealthy mother and father of the two boys and Sherman Coakley plays Fairchild, the chauffeur-father.

Naida Hickox is featured as Julia, Mae Machuco as Margaret the maid and Joanne Meyers as Gretchen.

Bill DeFreze has an important role as Paul, while others in the cast are Bob Denison, Don Ackerman, Sue Tuttle and Valerie Melhorn.

Tickets will be available at the door for $1.

"SABRINA FAIR," Samuel Taylor's sophisticated comedy success, will be presented by Lafayette Playshop tonight, tomorrow night, next Friday night and on Saturday night, December 10, at Acalanes High School Little Theater. Helping get the stage settings ready are, left to right, George Backer, production manager; Les Ackerman, president of Lafayette Playshop, and two members of the cast, Naida Hickox, who plays the role of Julia, and Don Ackerman.

Christmas Bureau Sends Urgent Appeal for Toys

An urgent appeal for toys to be repaired and given to needy children at Christmas was made today by the Christmas Bureau.

This year's collection is far below that of previous years, according to Mrs. Harmon Howard, general chairman. Firemen at the Lafayette and Moraga stations are donating their time and efforts to repair the toys and request that they be submitted by the end of next week.

ALSO, BROKEN plastic toys are not acceptable, as they cannot be repaired. Wheeled toys, such as trikes, bikes, wagons, and scooters, are particularly needed. Toys may be left at the Saranap fire station on Boulevard Way, the Lafayette fire station and the Moraga fire station.

This is the sixth year that the Christmas Bureau has organized to act as a clearing house to avoid duplication in Christmas giving. Many church and civic organizations in the area combine their efforts to bring Christmas cheer to the needy.

Last year over 40 families, representing almost 150 children, were aided. The Walnut Creek Lions Club delivers the baskets; casework is handled by Mrs. Ruth Basham, Home Service Department of the Red Cross, and the Junior League supplies volunteer workers and financial aid.

WORKING AS co-chairmen this year with Mrs. Howard are Mrs. Matt Connelly, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. Harrison D. Welch, Danville. Toy collection will be handled by Mesdames John Clark, Don Well and Harry Agler, all of Lafayette. Mrs. Robert Rowe, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. Howard Stafford, Lafayette, are in charge of food collection.

Publicity is being handled by Mrs. John G. Kelly, Walnut Creek, and the office volunteers are Mrs. John G. Campbell, Lafayette, and Mrs. Harold Havre, Mrs. Richard Kilner, Mrs. Joseph Sweet, Orinda.

About Our Happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

Bats from nowhere brushed the cheeks

There is one thing for sure—two little maids from school tra-la had nothing to do with the case. Anyway the girls were alone in the stygian cave—terrifiedly they clung to their hats and each other. Bats darted out of nowhere and brushed them on the cheek.

Inevitable as death and taxes the mechanized doo-dad they were riding, at a total cost of one buck (fancy—they had forked over 50c apiece for this horrible experience) was approaching the witch who was sauteeing somthing (somebody?) in a cauldon. Sure as fate she was going to get our girls.

Happily the thingamabob they were riding whipped past fast—or witchy was a little slow on the uptake that day—anyway the girls landed safely back in the world of today and decided they would be glad to give "Snow White" back to Mr. Disney and spend the rest of their time at Disney land attending to such calm and nostalgic pursuits as Peter Pan and Fantasy Land. The girls—?—Mrs. Wyn Bowran of Miner Rd. and Mrs. Lorenzo Potter Bee of Las Vegas Rd.

The father gave away the Bride—the soloist sang "I love you truly" and the bride was doll-like in her traditional white dress. There the similarity to an American wedding ended.

The couple stood before an exquisite golden Buddhist altar, an American flag at one side. The ceremony was in Japanese but the Buddhist priests message was in English. No one shook hands in the receiving line—just a formal bowing of heads.

Such was the beautiful and impressive ceremony when Cy Nakao married Yoshiko Hijashi. The families whose gardens were kept so beautifully by Sy, and who attended the wedding, were the William Vaughans, Paul Demeters, Jack Coopers, Jack Frasers, Don Parle Whites, G. W. Luhrs and Delma Goforths.

Hanging on the wall was a beiwaa

The decor for another party was particularly interesting because host and hostess are definitely in the decor business. A beiwaa from Tibet was hanging on the wall—a white canary in an elongated cage with tiny white chrysanthemums circling the base—green and white ivy growing all over the roof of the enclosed lanai room and anybody who knows a fig about variegated ivy will tell you THAT is impossible—hostess in a sari cloth dress in off white and gold to blend with the bird in the gilded cage—all in a lovely cocktail party at the Joseph Downs on Sunday night—and you want to know what a beiwaa is—a Chinese mandolin, silly.

Recent visitors on hand for the Shirlee Jurs-Hi Hennings wedding last Friday—Mr. and Mrs. Vad Jelton, ex-residents of Happy Valley. Mrs. Jelton looking right snappy in new hair do, definitely not country style, in spite of fact her conversation is mostly about the excitement of living on their ranch near Healdsburg.

Evidently the urbane Pat has turned out to be quite a cowhand (to hear her tell it) and gets tremendous fun out of scampering over the country roads in various models of Jelton Ford trucks.

Carnations dotted green laurel leaves

The Hennings wedding in the library of the Orinda Country Club was most impressive against a background of shiny green laurel leaves dotted with clusters of pink carnations. A particularly pretty picture was during the cake cutting ceremony with Shirlee in pale blue starched lace, flanked by daughter Heidi in pink organdy and son Robe in grey flannel slacks and navy jacket. And now the honeymooners are in Acapulco for 10 days.

On Saturday last the ex-Twenty-Thirty group, now known as the Town and Country Assembly gathered at the Claremont Country Club for its semi-annual dinner dance.

Those who attended from aur area—clear down the road as far as Alamo and Danville even, were Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Rowe, Philip Angel, Robert Angel, Emerson Wiser, Richard Kilner, James Cranston, William Becket, Jack Campbell, Robert Bentley, Richard Brooding, David Brunson, Phillip Chapman, Jack Gregory, Robert Haas.

Messrs. and Mesdames Gail Harris, Robert Haring, Paul Mouser, Montgomery Hazlett, Jack Heinz, Robert Holm, Robert Holmes, Ronald Hubbard, William Kinney, Ralph Kjar, Gordon Lisser, Samuel, Mason, Ralston, May, J. Meyer, T. P. Milleken, Eric Nielsen, James Nutting, Heber Smith, William Snook, Messrs. and Mesdames Philip Springman, Peter Warner, Roger Olsen, Robert Pohl, William Pond, John Prucha, William Robinson, Albert Rubey, Gerald Springman, Joseph Sweet and John Upp.

That is all.

ENGAGEMENT of Carole Cardoza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cardoza of Little Lane, Lafayette, and Donald Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Foster of Sonora, was announced recently by the bride-to-be's parents. The wedding is tentatively scheduled for February.—Pyle Photo

Unitarian Group Enjoys Buffet Supper, Party

Sunday evening the Diablo Unitarian Fellowship held a delightful buffet supper at the Walnut Creek Women's Club, proceeds of which went to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.

Mrs. Edward Leshan was general chairman, assisted by Mesdames Arnold Durlacher, A. D. Dambacher and Don Houser.

The United Nations theme was carried out throughout the evening. Hawiian punch was served followed by a supper which included dishes native to many of the countries that make up the UN. Among the dishes were Norwegian haddock balls, taco, Armenian spinach salad, Polish meat balls and Indian curry.

ONE OF THE most interesting dishes was the dessert, watergruel, a truly delicious fruit mixture, native to Holland, prepared for the occasion by Mrs. Geesje Cornelissens of Ensched, Holland, who is at present a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stratton of Lafayette.

Following the supper, movies depicting the work of UNICEF in member countries of the UN were shown.

THE UNIQUE Mexican Pinata was one of the highlights of the evening. This is a holiday custom of the Mexicans. It consists of a large tissue-wrapped ball stuffed with goodies and favors, suspended from a pulley. Blindfolded, members of the group attempt to strike the ball with a large stick until someone finally breaks it, spilling the favors for the assembled guests.

After the hilarious Pinata, guests participated in folk dances of the nations within the UN. Mr. and Mrs. George led the dances.

Painting Display Sponsored Here By Art Group

The Diablo Art Association will hold an exhibit starting today and lasting through December 30 at 1425 North Main Street, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Evadne Wenker, exhibit chairman from Danville said the paintings will be changed each week. Exhibiting landscapes and still life paintings in oil and watercolor are Mary Rasmussen, Doris Whipple, Evadne Wenker and Jerry Wenker of Danville, Jessie Thomason, Mary Wray, Marguerite Requa, Muriel White and Louise Stone of Martinez, Hazel Elling, Gertrude Phipps, Dan Dascollas and Ila Snapp of Concord.

Katie Hassler, Elise Albright, Alida Stark and Orma Eustis of Walnut Creek, Lyle Lund, Pearl Wille, Vivian Cook, Alvar Mellin and Marian Love of Lafayette, Robert Stevens of Livermore and Jade Fon of Oakland.

Potters exhibiting will be Ruth East of Concord, Frank Smith and Eleanor Condon of Walnut Creek. Silver and copper jewelry will be displayed by Gertrude Albright and Ruth East. There will be art-in-action by the following portrait painters: Hazel Elling, Katie Madsen, Yvonne Herbert and Emily Dascallos.

Beta Nu Chapter Serves Dessert

Mrs. Graylis Vossler, principal of Vallecito School, Lafayette, and Mrs. Margaret Johnson attended the recent dessert and fun party of Beta Nu Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma. Mrs. Johnson is an eighth grade teacher at Pleasant Hill Intermediate.

The party is an annual event of the honor society for women in education, and was held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Lanier in Antioch. The dessert tables were decorated in autumn colors with a horn of plenty as the centerpiece.

Lola Montes' Troupe to Dance Tomorrow Night

Lola Montes and her Spanish Dancers, a brilliant and versatile company of seven dancers, will be presented at Acalanes High School auditorium tomorrow night at 8:14 o'clock by the Acalanes Community Concert Association.

Headed by the lovely Lola herself, the company presents a wide range of authentic Latin dances, from Spanish classical dances to the fiery Flamenco. The colorful costumes, designed and executed especially for Senorita Montes from authentic originals, make evenings an eye-filling spectacle.

Lola Montes made her debut as a dancer in her early teens with the great Carmen Amaya and her celebrated dance company, and toured with this company for several years. She has appeared in many films and in television and on the leading concert stages of the country.

She is assisted in her present presentation by Manuel Verdugo, leading male dancer descended from ancient Spanish families; Patricia Valdes, from the Ballet Arts Studio in New York; Manuel Garcia, who has been dancing since a child and has won a reputation in Mexico City and Tokyo as well as in the United States; Consuelo Montenegro, well-known on the Pacific Coast; Alma Del Rio, famed for dancing, modeling and acting; Sylvia Zuniga, still in her teens and with many years of dance training, and Oscar Kosches, Polish pianist noted for accompanying and also solo work.

This concert is available to Community Concert members only. Anyone wishing to be contacter for membership when the rolls are reopened should call Mrs. Walter Gray, YE 4-2537.

This is your community. Help make it a better place to live in.

Pleasant Hill Fives vs. Tracy Tonight

Ram Basketball Teams Will Be Hosts at Diablo

The Pleasant Hill Rams host Tracy's best tonight, with the Bee and varsity teams taking to the Diablo Hardwood, which will serve as home court for most of the Rams' home games.

Other coaches in the league have had problems figuring starting personnel, but graduation was good to the Pleasant Hill team and they have five veterans who saw plenty of action the past two years.

Headman, Coach Art Poulin, needs a bit of help in the reserve section, but in the starter he has them set.

THE ONLY REASON they are not fully ready is that some have to get a bit of football out of their systems, and practice sessions have been few to date.

Fred Cochrane gets the call tonight at center, with Bill Nixon and Ray Johansen two sharp shooters, at forward.

In the guard slots it's Jim McMillin and Bob Ritchie.

LITTLE IS KNOWN of the visitors, but chances are that they, too, are a bit on the rusty side, in which case the game can be raed pretty much of a tossup.

The Rams have ample size and balance to make a good showing, once they get under way, and it's a good bet that they will rack up a good share of wins—in fact, at this stage, they can't be overlooked as pennant contenders.

League play doesn't start until January, however, and by that time practice games will have given a much better line on all clubs in the circuit.

Retarded Child Topic in Confab

Teachers of mentally retarded children and other school personnel heard a speaker from the Sonoma State Hospital at a meeting of the newly organized Contra Costa County Schools Committee on Mental Retardation, Wednesday at Oak Park School, Pleasant Hill.

Dr. James O. Palmer, clinical psychologist, spoke on apparently retarded children whose mentality is found by further testing not to be deficient. A series of such studies has been undertaken at Sonoma State Hospital, Lewis reported.

Down the Alley . . .

Bowlers' Holiday Slump Accompanies Thanksgiving

By LOU CHERICONI

With the Thanksgiving holiday behind us, the shortened week found low scores prevalent at both bowling alleys.

As we near the halfway point in winter league bowling, most teams are steadying down and good series are being thrown.

Lots of interest has been created due to the fact that many leagues are having a split season and the half way point is just about reached. Terms in contention for the first half championship are giving it all they have in an effort to cop the first half flag. All of you bowling fans come on out to the alleys and root for your favorite team. Also it would be nice to have the sponsors of the individual teams make an appearance and help push your team along.

In the Monument Classic League Jack DeGroft paced Danny Van Allen's of Lafayette to 2 wins over Vlilage Auto Service. Jack shot 204-575. Bob Tank hit 563 for losers.

VIC JONES ROOFING took 2 from Danville Merchants with Jack Farizell hitting 204-243-582 and Guy Zimmerman pacing the Merchants with 525. In the other league game Paddock Bowl took 2 from General American Life Insurance as Bob Berns hit 200-544 while Bill Dagneau hit 201-559 for the losers.

High series in the Monument Majors: Dave Valladao 529, Otto Sorensen 544, Hal Jones 205-558, F. Quaorato 202-560, D. Cruff 539, J. Lewter 531, J. Dunn 535.

Results in the Monument Keglers League: Russ Chivers hit 208-534 for Tierney Jewelers, for the highest series of the week in the league. With H. Cook and G. Clark both hitting 506, C & C Auto Service took all points from Walnut Creek Exchange in the Monday Auto League. Joe Muzzy paced the Exchange with 522. Monsanto 1 3 (Bill French 532) Walnut Creek Hardware 1 (Lou Chericoni 207-510). South Berkeley Creamery 3 (Jack Paddock 463).

BILL BROCK Oldsmobile 1 (F. Houpt 445). John Serpa Buick 3 (H. Brill 507) Cappel Pontiac 1 (F. Krausnick 496). Buter Auto 4 (C. Martin 470). Johnson Dry Wall Service 0 (Al Romero 204-528). Crenna's Tires 3 (John Costa 560). Tunnel Motors 1 (Jack Doran 456). Craig Oil Co. 3 (Don Offerbein 220-494). Mt. Diablo Silents 1 (Vernon Williams 201-498).

High series in the Diablo Handicap 750; E. Risi 507. J. Muzzy 500; Avila hit 211, and Pete Rucknel 201 for the only 200 games during the night.

Only one 200 game was rolled in the Diablo Valley League—an even 200 by Gene Newman of 4 Corners Liquors. Gene finished up with 543.

Howard Sevey hit 224, G. Ackerman 200, D. Carusi 200, Ed Armstrong 200. All these were rolled in the 785 League.

PADDOCK BOWL HILITES

The Women's Starlite League saw Pete's Donuts take 3 points from Ralph's Drug Store. H. McLaughlin hit 343 for the winners and Rosalic Kowske hit 361 for Ralph's.

Viking Health Club took 3 from Davi Jewelers with Minnie Meadows hitting 396 to lead the way. For the losers S. Switzer was high with 392. Mattsons Creamery took all 4 points from Concord Hospital. A Egbert hit 399 for the Creamery girls and D. Desmond 326 for Concord.

Kirk's Drive-In took all 4 points from Dow Diamonds as Elsie Wisner hit 442 for the winners and Iva Montgomery 382 for the losers.

The Tri-City League saw Walnut Creek American Legion taking 2 from Sparcino Menswear as Bob Stickel hit 509 while for the losers O. Center hit 213-583.

Other finals: Gregory Barbers 2 (Marve Anderson 222-579) M & M 1 (Clay Cooper 559). 4 Corners Liquors 2 (Jim Sullivan 522) Sports & Games of Walnut Creek 1 (Phil Slater 556). Daylong Riechfield Service 3 (Ernest Mazzuchi 499) Concord VFW 0 (Jim Simpson 245-612).

Incidentally Jim Simpson's 245 game and his 612 series were both highest game rolled and highest series during the past week in league play at both bowling alleys. Kandy Kane 2 (Hal Jones 206-573). Garman Rose Union 1 (Rudy Garcia 504). El Monte Associated 3 (Lou Kitowski 529). Block Trophies 1 (John Jeffers 508).

Five hundred series in the California Poppy League went to Carstephen 504, Bergie Ottosen 506, nell 509, Jim Willows 201-511, Don Jim Brown 510.

IN THE BLOCKS Mixed Foursome League Joe Della Pipa hit 201-545, Phil Slater 536, Ben Prospal 511, Jack Rankin 206-213-577, Doc Caraker 532, Vic Jomes 507.

For the women, Makel Caraker hit 527, Eunice Sodaro 497, Nita Rankin 425, Wistel Dybus 437, Dodie Johnson 423, Maxine Kilgore 428.

BOWLERS NOTE: Do you remember the A.B.C. Membership Pledge? Some of our new bowlers in A.B.C. sanctioned leagues do not even know of its existence. As a refresher for our regular bowlers and for the new ones here it is:

I pledge upon my word of honor, I will not take unfair advantage of an opponent or fellow bowler, that I will be courteous in work and demeanor to opponents, officials and spectators, that I will obesrve the rules of the American Bowling Congress in letter and in spirit, that I will never bowl in an unsanctioned league or tournament, and that I will constantly strive to uphold the character and dignity of our tenpin sport.

A short, but to the point, pledge, and the next time youre out on the lanes, remember it, and bowling will be just that much better for you and your fellow bowlers on the adjoining lanes.

Dons Drop Two In New Season's Casaba Opener

The Acalanes casaba artists dropped a doubleheader in their season's opener last week when the varsity lost a 55-51 decision to the University of California 145-pound team while the Bees were toppled by Harry Ells Junior High of Richmond, 34-24.

The games, played at the Acalanes gym November 22, found the varsity five making a game of it all the way.

They trailed 19-16 in a free-scoring first quarter. The count was 34-24 at the half in favor of the visitors, and it was the biggest lead of the game, as the Dons came back to outscore the opposition 17-12 in the third period, closing the gap to 46-41.

IN THE FINAL period of play the Acalanes quintet again outscored the Cal five 10-9, but time ran out with the Dons trailing 55-51.

Big guns in the Don attack were Jumping Joe Sheaff, who bagged 19 points from his pivot spot, and Bill Link at forward and Tom Hannan at guard, who scored 10 apiece.

Ace of the opposition was Guard Ron Landis, who hit 13 points from the free throw line, plus four field goals, for a game total of 21 points.

THE GAME, as expected in an opener, was loosely played in spots, particularly on defensive action, but gave indications that the Dons will be better than average and nobody's setup.

Sheaff, as expected, was impressive in his pivot spot, a position in which he made all-county as a junior last year.

IN THE BEE game, Coach Hal Orsen's crew started fast and jumped to a 10-5 first quarter lead, only to bog down and trail 19-15 at the halfway mark.

Harry Ells maintained the lead the rest of the way as they outscored the Don Babes 9-5 in the third period and 6-4 in the fourth quarter, to win out 34-24.

Top scorer was Mac Waddell with six points, all in the first half of play, when he hit two field goals in the opening quarter and one in the second.

Bob Randall topped the visitors with a grand total of a lucky 13.

Danville Scene Of Knight-Wolf Clash Tonight

The Las Lomas Knights take to the road tonight when their basketball Bee and varsity teams travel to Danville to play the San Ramon High School Wolves.

The Knight varsity coach, Merrill Callow, has had his squad hustling all week, with overtime drills on basic fundamentals.

One thing certain is that Coach Callow will throw a host of players into the fray in order to get some line on their capabilities under fire.

HE PLANS to start with a young group and thus do some building, as all will be back for another season of play.

Joe Sibley, who played as a reserve last year, gets a starter's spot at forward. The other four are all up from last year's Bees.

Football Awards to Players Highlight Prep Sport Scene

By ERWIN MATTSON

Football is over, as far as active playing is concerned for the local preps, but the past couple of weeks have found the pigskin game in the limelight with football banquets, letter awards and trophy presentations taking place.

The Las Lomas Knights, who wound up as runner-up to the Pittsburg eleven, were hosted by the Walnut Creek Rotary in a banquet at the Monument Bowl.

Speaker was Jim Cullom, former California great. Pictures of the 49ers highlights of 1954 were also shown.

HIGHLIGHT of the evening's festivities was the presentation of three Rotary awards.

Webb Johnson, the all-county center, received the cup for the most valuable player. Don Ogden was recognized as the most valuable back. The coaches' award went to Dick Stanley.

Names of all three will be engraved on the permanent trophy given to Las Lomas by the Rotary for football, basketball, track and baseball.

SPECIAL CREDIT should go to the Walnut Creek Rotary, which for many years sponsored the Acalanes Dons and only last year turned that function over to the Lafayette Rotary, which has carried on in admirable fashion.

Pleasant Hill had its presentation at its annual Fathers and Sons Banquet, with Bill Archer, Santa Rosa Junior College coach, as guest speaker.

Jim McMillin was awarded the trophy as most valuable player and as co-captain along with teammate Bill Nixon. Doug Leonard received honors as the most improved.

Each year the Rams do a very fine thing in choosing an outstanding opponent player. The award went to Webb Johnson of Las Lomas, with the receiving being done by Webb's father, as Webb was confined home with a touch of the flu.

THE DONS had their award assembly with the Rotary trophy for the season's outstanding player going to Laird Eickmeyer. Laird was picked as a guard on the all-county first club.

The coaches award went to Halfback Mike Barrett for his fine play and splendid team attitude.

The Ted Fry Memorial Cup went to Guard Bob Frederickson, picked as the most courageous linesman.

The most important player award went to Fred Arbogast. The cup was donated by Henry Villa.

IN CONNECTION with the award assembly, I want to say that I had two wonderful things happen—first, the squad gave me a beautiful Omega watch, and then, to top it off, Principal Stanley Walgren called me to the stage and, after some fine remarks, ordered the stage curtain opened—and there was a group of players I had coached, starting back in 1940, when Acalanes first opened.

This has been my 25th year of coaching varsity football, and I decided it was time to step down, as I announced earlier in the year.

The student body, faculty and my many friends have been very wonderful to me, and I want to take this opportunity to say thanks a million to one and all.
